

Ben Christophers, Songbird Scapes The Sky

Racing into town
Bicycles in line
In your raid
In your raid I was
Crazy inner feeling flows in here
I'm a child sweet liberty

Heaven knows you thrilled them too
You raid my senses sunny vale

Am I really safe with you
If I dont know you I dont know myself

Heaven knows you thrilled them too
You raid my senses sunny vail

We'll never fade apart
Evergreen and everclear
Welcome in those sunny days
Heavely in Love
Even if it's getting dark
Pretty one we'll stay home
Heaven knows you thrilled them
You raid my senses
