

Ben Folds, Give Judy My Notice

Judy

Could anyone be loved anymore and I love you

does it hurt you too?

Well, Judy

I've been feeling small too long

I love you so

but something's wrong and I come running when you want me here and when you want me to, I disappear

Judy

I knew if I made it easy for you you'd settle for me, yeah eventually

but Judy

I can't be myself anymore

it's way too hard

being loved by default and I can't do this any longer the vacuum left is so much stronger

Judy

Judy you know I'm not mad anymore at least most of the time but it could take a while

I've been living just to see you smile ever once in a while tears fall

but that don't mean nothing at all Just cause I said it first that's why it hurts

And Judy,
I won't be your bitch anymore and follow you around and hold the door

i'm not sorry if you're not sorry
and you're not sorry
till I make you Judy
