Ben Folds, Selfless, Cold And Composed

said what you wanted to hear and what I wanted to say so, I will take it back are all of the dishes in tact? let them be broken broken it's easy to be easy and free when it doesn't mean anything you remain selfless, cold and composed you've done me no favor to call and be nice telling me I can take anything I like

you don't owe me to be so polite you've done no wrong and you've done no wrong get out of my sight it's easy to be easy and free when it doesn't mean anything to remain selfless, cold and composed come on baby, now throw me a right to the chin don't just stare like you never cared I know you did but you just smile like a bank teller blankly telling me: "have a nice life" come on baby, now throw me a right to the chin just one sign that could show me that you give a shit but you just smile, politely and I grow weaker and I said what you wanted to hear and what I wanted to say so, I will take it back it's easy to be easy and free

when it doesn't mean anything and it doesn't mean anything you can take anything

you're so

selfless, cold so selfless, cold so selfless, cold and composed (cool.)
