

Ben Harper, Brown Eyed Blues

If I knew,
being here with you today
would mean being alone tomorrow.
I would gladly trade
all of my tomorrows away for a moment with you.

Brown Eyed Blues
You can find yourself another fool.
I said hey, hey, heeeey

Can you look into my eyes
or has your heart gone blind?
said has your heart gone blind?
What can you look
Can you look into your own and find the safe place to hide?

Brown Eyed Blue
you can find yourself another fool.
I said hey, hey, heeeey

Why be with a stranger when you could be
with your friend?
If you're ever lonely
you know I'm lonely too and I'll stay lonely Until, I'm again with you

Brown Eyed Blues
You can find yourself another fool
