

Ben Harper, Faded / Whole Lotta Love

BEN HARPER

Miscellaneous

Faded / Whole Lotta Love

You so easily amuse

Like a pantomime

Such a silent crime

You so easily abuse

Lack of confidence

It's your best offense

You so easily confuse

You can't deny it

Still you try to hide it

Faded

So faded

Like a memory gone

There's no recollection

Faded

So faded

Like a forgotten dream

Further than it seems

You so hastily defy

When you think you need it

You find a way to bleed it

You so hastily deny

Pleading innocence

It's your best defense

You so hastily reply

The moment (that) you said it

Already regret it

Faded

So faded

Like a memory gone

There's no recollection

Faded

So faded

Like a forgotten dream

Further than it seems

You so easily amuse

You so easily abuse

Faded

So faded

Like a memory gone

There's no recollection

Faded

So faded

Like a forgotten dream

Further than it seems

Faded

So faded

Like a memory gone

There's no recollection
