

Ben Jelen, Come On (Live)

Finally silence
Looking out, looking back across the sky
Trying to find a meaning
Knowing that I just left it all behind
Still I smell a lingering softness
Where did she go? How did she go?
I want, I wanna know
I wanna know that she'll be coming here to me
Come on, without you I'll never feel the love inside of me
Come on, you know that we belong
Come on, come on, come on, come on
And thinking back before her
I never knew the meaning of alone
Still the flag is feeling foreign
Live the day to escape into a phone
Speaking of a world not real then
Where did she go? How did she go?
I want, I wanna know
I wanna know that she'll be coming here to me
Come on, without you I'll never feel the love inside of me
Come on, you know that we belong
Come on, come on, come on, come on
'Cause she's sharp for kisses
And my heart misses
She's coming, she's coming here to me
I'm needing, desiring to kiss her now
I'm living for her, breathing for her
Singing for her fairytale
Come on, without you I'll never feel the love inside of me
Come on, you know that we belong
Come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, without you I'll never feel the love inside of me
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
