

Ben Kenney, Skyscraper

skyscraper scraped
the heart from me it's why i don't care about your needs you see, this city took the un from unconditional
i wish it were a dream skyscraper scraped the heart from me try to leave it cause it ain't no good to me cause this city took the only thing i need breathtaking fakes are all i see it's why you can't pay me to believe cause i see the way they make believe they're something that inside they'll never be
