

Ben Kweller, Ann Disaster

Ann Disaster make it better,
make this whole thing come together
with your false alarmin'.

I know what you want,
you want a piece of me.

So we're waiting and not frustrating,
you made a comeback and now you're ready
to attack with our eyes wide open.

I know what you want,
you want a piece of me.

You can tell a thousand lies
but you can't hide or surprise your future.

I know what you want, you want a piece of me.
