Ben Kweller, Ballad Of Wendy Baker

I'm so quiet today I don't feel like me Someone took your smile away Now it's gone and I can't see No one loves till it's gone I'm the one who likes change But I feel taken by surprise Let me rewind the things I said That it made rain inside your eyes I keep missing you My heart knows it's through Don't wake up, I'm here To keep you from the storm I'll soak up your fear And keep your body warm I keep missing you My heart knows it's through Don't wake up, I'm here To keep you from the storm I'll soak up your fear And keep your body warm I keep missing you My heart knows it's through Nothing to hold on to My heart knows it's through
