

Ben Kweller, Living Life

The greenest trees you'll ever see are the ones in your mind And all the answers and the dreams will come to you in time

Yeah, you are living life
the way you feel

I know the world around you everyone shares the sky
You never see darkness you are the daylight

Yeah, you are living life
the way you feel

Go away with a smile
Don't forget about your past Don't keep yourself from giving I am always watching you be yourself and stayin' true
'cause it makes me feel like life's worth living

The way you feel

I've never minded where you're going
I know that change is a part of you I'm not gonna hide anymore, I'm gonna listen to myself and maybe one day I can be real too

Yeah, you are living life
Yeah you are, you are living life Don't you know that you are living life
the way you feel
And that is real.
