

Ben Kweller, No Reason

Let me get lost.
I'll drive you around 'til I run out of gas.
Find me a boss.
There are ripples in my tea cause an earthquake's coming.

And there's people meeting on Mars
And people driving in their cars
And kids are laughing under the stars today.

Let me go hide.
Find a box to put BK inside.
Things are so well.
We're blowing shit up only you could tell.

And there's people meeting on Mars
And people driving in their cars
And kids are sleeping under the stars today.

no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason to cry.

I'm going against
Every person that I once walked with.
Things are happening.
My cat is sleeping and my jade tree's dying.

And there's people meeting on Mars
And people crashing in their cars
And kids are kissing under the stars today.

no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason to say goodbye.

no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason to...

no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason reason
There's no reason to cry. (say goodbye)
