

Ben Kweller, Panamanian Girl

Verse 1:

The blazing light, not a big deal
I wanna make you happy, I don't think i will
I want you to come over, I miss you too
Molly's eyes are blue
I see you, in slow-mo
Draped in turquoise, head to toe
I want you to come over, I miss you too
Molly's eyes are blue
Molly's eyes are blue

Chorus:

What is wrong?
It's been so looooooooooong
I'm the clown when you break down
Panamanian girl

Verse 2:

It's so hard to make this work
I'm the jerk, but i still care
I want you to know that i'm jealous of things that aren't even there
So look at me, Panamanian girl, about to cry
I can tell, what i found
Your eyes are brown and i don't wanna drown in you
So tell me what is wrong?
It's been so looooooooooong

Ourto:

I'm the clown when you break down
Panamanian girl

I'm the clown when you break down
Panamanian girl

I'm the clown when you break down
Panamanian girl
