

Ben Kweller, Walk On Me

Sometimes I wonder if you're still here looking out for anything that could fall and hit your head.
Fluorescent lights burn out in time dear.
We see the world in a different light.
Did you give up?

Love is supposed to be this bad.
Make you cry mega-ultra sad.
If I told you you're all I ever had would you walk on me?
Because I wouldn't walk on you.

If I was in your shoes I wouldn't walk all over you.
So please don't walk all over me. Yayaya
If I was in your shoes I wouldn't walk all over you.
So please don't walk all over me.

Right now I fell like it's all ending.
Spit me out, sell me cheap,
You'll never-ever-ever-ever-teach me to fly.
In the sky it's early and still morning.
All those smiles you made wanted to cry
Cause you gave up.

Love is supposed to be this bad.
Make you cry stupid-shady sad.
If I told you you're all I ever had would you walk on me?
Because I wouldn't walk on you.

If I was in your shoes I wouldn't walk all over you.
So please don't walk all over me. Yayaya
If I was in your shoes I wouldn't walk all over you.
So please don't walk all over me.

If I was in your shoes I wouldn't walk all over you.
So please don't walk all over me. Yayaya
If I was in your shoes I wouldn't walk all over you.
So please don't walk all over me
Please don't walk all over me
