Ben Lee, Green Hearts

I swear I've never been speechless Till today, no way I never thought you weren't pretty Had to say, had to say

And if you need some kind of reassurance I'll cry and send my tears
But if you don't know I'm sorry
Then my green hearts won't mean anything

I draw a picture of red hearts On a plate, just to state I don't need love, just a letter In my way, on my tray

And if you hate me cause I'm selfish I'll begin to understand
But if you don't know I'm sorry
Then my g2een hearts won't mean anything

Yeah my green hearts won't mean anything Yeah my green hearts won't mean anything Yeah my green hearts won't mean anything Yeah my green hearts won't mean anything Yeah my green hearts won't mean anything Yeah my green hearts won't mean anything Yeah my green hearts won't mean anything
