

Ben Lee, Music 4 The Young & Foolish

i could never leave you waiting, ive never been so close.
theres nothin that we need to save here, so just let it go.

and take me over,
then leave me broken,
cause this is music,
for the young and foolish.

spillin everything in the darkness, you can have it all,
and we can build it up to the stars,
just to watch it fall.

so take me over,
and leave me broken,
cause this music,
for the young and foolish.

dont wanna live underwater,
dont wanna drown in the sun,
just wanna cry on your shoulder,
until a tidal wave comes.

dont wanna live underwater,
dont wanna drown in the sun,
just wanna cry on your shoulder,
until a tidal wave comes.

seekin for a secret craving, headlights on a sign.
i might have to walk away from you baby,
to make you mine.

so take me over,
and leave me broken,
cause this is music,
for the young and foolish.

so take me over,
and leave me broken,
cause this is music,
for the young and foolish.
