

Ben Lee, Rise up

what's in your heart
what's in your head
it's one or the other these days the quicker the dead
sometimes we gotta fight so don't you complain
because i never promised this would be easy babe
you and me
are going to rise up
and they will be surprised, yeah
now everything's weird
but soon they will be gone because our whispered words are louder than bombs
so don't you lose faith
they say it's no fun because we have come too far to stop before we're done
you and me
sometimes we get lost but soon we'll be found this is far too important to turn back now
they will be surprised, yeah
because we are going to rise up come on and rise
