

Ben Lee, The Frail Girl

My nervous stage presence
I awkwardly smile
At the sassiest comment
In your outgoing style
You'll cut out my heart
And you'll do it to spite me
y'only like me cause I'm in a band
But at least you like me

I should feel bad
I should feel used
Keep my eyes closed
Just let me choose

You like my music
Rock n roll music
You got my songs in your head
On the weekend
I'm just a guitar
I'm just a CD
Something to keep
But I'm glad you've got me

Life reflector
Pretty heckler

Act like you mean it
Not just for free shit
You want a boyfriend
To get on the guest list
You're gonna use me
You're going through me
But I know right now
That you're happening to me

That should scare me
When you phone me
I'll be pretending
But at least not lonely

You like my music
Rock n roll music
You got my songs in your head
On the weekend
I'm just a guitar
I'm just a CD
Something to keep
But I'm glad you've got me

Life reflector
Pretty heckler
