

Ben Lee, Winning Your Heart

I think I could make you love me
If you would let me try
I know it sounds a little simple See but I'm a simple guy
All I need is one good chance
And I could make you mine
I think that I could make you love me
If you would let me try

I think that I could make you love me
I'd take you to a show I'd get the band to play your favourite song five or six times in a row Then we'd go out drinking and we'd talk about our lives Then watch tv til the sun comes up reruns of party of five

I think that I could make you love me
We'd be the talk of the town Cocktails at parties, we'd take drugs and run around I'd dedicate a song to you and I'd sing it every day It'd be ok to say nothing when there's nothing left to say

Well I know it sounds unlikely and I know it sounds insane I don't know what you've heard about me but I swear to god I've changed So all I need is a minute just a moment of your time
I think that I could make you love me
If you would let me try
Please let me try
