

Ben Moody, The End Has Come

Took from me all that I had Left my soul and spirit dead
Killing everything in me
What is one use to be three

Now to drive away the pain
I'll destroy all I disdain
I'll become what I despise
Living someone else's life

(Don't back down)

Don't ever back down
Don't ever turn around
My end has come
So now I come for you

Now obsession rules my mind
This commotion makes me blind
Searching out whoever lies
Or has stolen away my life

But I'm already dead

Don't ever back down
Don't ever turn around
My end has come
So I come for you

AHHHHH

You'd take my everything
I'll take your tired breath
I can't feel anything
And I'd live to send you to your death

Your heart will break
As might be just as quick
Through your tortured expense (???)
Cuz I won't back down

Don't ever back down
Don't ever turn around
My end has come
So now I come for you

(Don't back down)

I'll drive you down
I'll beat you to the ground
My end has come
So now I come for you

DON'T BACK.. DOWN!
