

Ben Watt, Guinea Pig

Don't you think I'm so strong?
I can only take the pressure for so long.
Take your hangups and your pride,
and lock them all outside.

A lot is in the detail.
The little things, my heart never fails to detect,
like loneliness,
in the glass.

Whats keepin you from calm now?
Every night, every day,
what can I say come on.
What can I say come on...
What can I say come on...
What can I say come on...

Don't you think I'm so strong?
I can only take the pressure for so long.
Take your hangups and your pride,
and lock them all outside.

A lot is in the detail.
The little things, my heart never fails to detect,
like loneliness,
in the glass.

What's keepin you from calm now?
Every night, every day,
what can I say come on...
What can I say come on...
What can I say come on...
What can I say come on.
