

Benett, It's So True

so odd, so pure and sweet it only seems to me so true, in just a beat there's only you, and what you feel I don't feel it too chorus.....

you just wash rite over me with all the magic of the seas in just a beat, it's all me, it's so true that theres me and there's always you no one in the world should ever feel so content to simple its still imence and urgent as the feeling grows and grows it comes from somewhere, I don't know (chs)

so feel free, what you don't feel, it isn't true 'cause if it is - I don't feel it too OH, and this whole world could sink like stone, just take my hand, just take my hand (chs) x2
