

Benjamin Kim, Everything Has A Reason

One day...
While I was walking outside.
Told myself I should find.
Something in my life.
But when I tried nothing came to my mind...

One night...
While I was watching the sun go down.
Never knew what my life was about.
Watching the things go around.
But I always questioned how...

You try to see it through their eyes.
Try to deepen the feelings inside.
But the only thing that you can find,
Is that everything has a reason...
If I only knew you were leaving,
That's why everything has a reason...

One moment...
Can seem like an entire lifetime.
Or at least that's what's from your own mind.
You can never take back your line.
Especially from my life....

You try to see it through their eyes.
Try to deepen the feelings inside.
But the only thing that you can find,
Is that everything has a reason...
If I only knew you were leaving,
That's why everything has a reason...

Be careful what you say.
Or even what you do.
Cuz life has a plan for you.
That's why everything has a reason...

You try to see it through their eyes.
Try to deepen the feelings inside.
But the only thing that you can find,
Is that everything has a reason...
If I only knew you were leaving,
That's why everything has a reason...

Be careful what you say.
Or even what you do.
Cuz life has a plan for you.
That's why everything has a reason...
