

Berenice, Catalytic Lover

You're a fire inside a kinder's are burning
When you smile all my emotions are turning
You're like the sun, in my eyes
Cause you date me
When you're near
All kind of things start to curl in
And it's clear, my curiosity is turing
You're like the star, on my face
Try to bring me round
Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
I'm finally willing to learn
Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
The tables are starting the tables are starting to turn
(Bring me bround to the light)
And you say everything's there if you wanted
Well it's great, you put the color back on me
You're like a quake in the earth
That will shake me down
Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
I'm finally willing to learn
Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
The tables are starting to turn
Teach me to fall, teach me to breath
I'm finally willing to learn
Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
I'm finally willing, finally willing to learn
The tables are starting to turn
hey you : Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
I'm finally willing to learn
Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
The tables are starting to turn
Teach me to fall, teach me to breath
I'm finally willing to learn
Teach me to fall, teach me to cry
The tables are starting the tables are starting to turn
(Turn me to the light)
