

Berenice, I'D Rather Sleep Alone

You've always been my alter ego
I've always been your toy !
I always like to be where you go
But you're a free-living boy

Ooh, you're passing by
But I ain't gonna cry !

I'd rather sleep alone
Than feel that there's no one home
You tell me that I'm the best
But your heart beats with someone else

I'd rather sleep alone
Than feel that there's no one home
You tell me that I'm the best
But your heart beats with someone else
Your heart is with someone else

I've never wanted to possess you
You've never asked me to!
It's just that I've been getting into
All of the things we do

Ooh, you're passing by,
But I ain't gonna cry

I'd rather sleep alone
Than feel that there's no one home
You tell me that I'm the best
But your heart beats with someone else

I'd rather sleep alone
Than feel that there's no one home
You tell me that I'm the best
But your heart beats with someone else
Ooh your heart is with someone else

Ooh, I'm breaking out cos I 've changed my mind

I'd rather sleep alone
Than feel that there's no one home
You tell me that I'm the best
But your heart beats with someone else

I'd rather sleep alone
Than feel that there's no one home
You tell me that I'm the best
But your heart is with someone else
Ooh your heart is with someone else
