

Berenice, I'm Proud

Some people say that I'm a stubborn girl
They tell me I'm living in another world
They say I could use a little give and take
But sometimes a habit can be hard to shake

I like attention and I like to flirt
I keep my heels digging down in the dirt
Some call me selfish, some call me strange
But everyone knows that I will never change !

Ooh, no, don't ask me why
Sometimes, I wonder why...
Oh, don't ask me why !

Refrain
I'm proud I have to have my way
I drag my feet when I'm late
I'm proud I gotta get my way
It's not a question of hate

I never regret a single thing I say
I don't even care if there's a price to pay
I take my ego with me all the way
Better watch out because it's here to stay !

Ooh, no, don't ask me why
Sometimes, I wonder why...
Oh don't ask me why !

Refrain

I never regret a single thing I say
I don't even care if there's a price to pay !

Refrain (x3)
