

Berenice, I want him there

I'm not a girl who needs a lover
Don't want a boyfriend in the way
Don't need a guy to share the covers
I keep my appetite at bay
But the boy that I have found is like no other
Cos he opens up the doors I never thought I had
Boy, I want him there !
Over, under, everywhere
I want him there !
Getting tangled in my hair
Boy, I want him there !
Singing praises like a prayer
I want him there !
Cos that's where he'll find the answer
Yeah you'll find it everywhere
No way he's slipping through my fingers
No chance of vanishing away
I want the smell he leaves to linger
Then I'll remember everyday
I don't know if we are coming ou we're going
You can say it's all for nothing but I just don't care !
Boy, I want him there !
Over, under, everywhere
I want him there !
Getting tangled in my hair
Boy, I want him there !
Singing praises like a prayer
I want him there !
Cos that's where he'll find the answer
Yeah you'll find it everywhere
Don't know where we will be tomorrow
Still getting over yesterday
The hole we're digging may be shallow
But it's a big one anyway !
I don't know if we were made to stay together
But I'm living in the moment of the here and now
Boy, I want him there !
Over, under, everywhere
I want him there !
Getting tangled in my hair
Boy, I want him there !
Singing praises like a prayer
I want him there !
Cos that's where we'll find the answer
Yeah you'll find it everywhere
Don't try and reason with my senses
Don't try and pull me down to earth
Boy, I want him there !
Over, under, everywhere
I want him there !
Getting tangled in my hair
Boy, I want him there !
Singing praises like a prayer
I want him there !
Cos that's where we'll find the answer
Yeah you'll find it everywhere
