

Berlin, Beg, Steal Or Borrow

You will stay tonight
I will know it's not right

You know me
And so I'll see you tomorrow
I know you
As always beg, steal or borrow

You play me for a fool
I let you make the rules

You come in my life
With your sad, searching eyes
A scene full of hunger and pain
You pull at my heart
You drag out my tears
I give and you take and then you're gone

Some day I will say no
Until then on with the show
