

Berlin, Heartstrings

Watching as you sleep so easy
Satisfied my need and desire
Wonder why
I'm wide awake and left alone shaken
Still I cry
Paralyzed, our love tearing me apart

I love you more each day
I feel you in every way
I love the music you play on my heartstrings
Reach for touch

You play on my heartstrings
I slept in your arms, content to go on dreaming

We used to awake into morning
Time stood still
A nightmare too real to imagine
Paralyzed tonight, tearing me apart
Losing you

Smile at me
You wake to the sound of another day
Feel the way I do now But nobody ever made me feel
And I hate that I want you
