

Berlin, Rumor Of Love

You touched my hand.
You started a rumor of love.
Wanting to believe once again.

You touched my heart.
You started a rumor of love.
Another dream that surely must end.

Chorus:
Someone told me you never said, stay.
I shook my head, turned around and walked away.
Someone told me a rumor of love.
I need to know if its me youre thinking of.
Someone told me you never said, stay.
All I know is youre here with me today.

You touched my soul.
You started a rumor of love.
Trying to be your lover and friend.
