

Bertine Zetlitz, Broken

It occurred to me
You might be broken
Like a sinking ship or a car
Yes it dawned on me
You might be damaged goods
Won't get very far

It occurred to me
You might be injured
Coz my dress was stained
From your touch
And it dawned on me
We've never kissed this hard
Never tickled this much

Chorus:
Will you stay
Will you stay in my arms
Will you stay
Will you stay in my arms

Well it dawned on me
You might be broken
Coz your eyes seem weary and bright
And you made me wish
I could be miles away
You held me too tight

Well it dawned on me
You might be broken
Coz your skin was cold to the touch
And it dawned on me
There will be other nights
That won't twinkle this much

Chorus:
Will you stay
Will you stay in my arms
Will you stay
Will you stay in my arms

Will you stay
Will you stay in my arms (Will you stay?)
Will you stay (In my arms?)
Will you stay in my arms (Will you stay?)

Will you stay (in my arms?)
Will you stay in my arms (Will you stay?)
Will you stay (in my arms?)
Will you stay in my arms (Will you stay?)

Will you stay (If I say it's now or never, will you hang around forever)
Will you stay in my arms
Will you stay (Will you make me feel like lovers do?)
Will you stay in my arms

Will you stay (Will you write a thousand letters, will you have me feeling better)
Will you stay in my arms
Will you stay (Will you make my broken words come true?)
Will you stay in my arms
