

Beseech, A Last Farewell

My last second an angel came
Time has come to say goodbye
A coldness began to creep inside
We must leave before the night
Tears started to fall like autumn leaves
Now its time to go
A last farewell this day
When the angel came for me
Where your soul should belong
What if its not the world I dreamt of
There is no way back
Im afraid of what will come
Now youll face your sins
A last farewell this day
