

Beseech, Blinded

I remember a star
A star I still can see
One among the others
That shined so gracefully
I wish you stoped me
And embraced my soul
But now its too late
And tomorrow Ill be gone
I was blinded by your lies
Lost in the shadows
Of sins I made for you
The love you gave
Is no longer mine
Even when youre gone
The light will shine on
My memory of you
Will never go away
I was blinded by your lies
