

Beseech, Eagleheart

Suddenly
the dawn was here
and so the winds
These were the magic winds, from a foreign land
It may take time, to learn to fly again Oooh mighty winds, listen to my heart
I know you feel
the eagle inside of me
I am the skyborn son
please take me home
Home to the clouds, from where my heart belongs Now I see the light, of the stars that will guide me home
Oooh mighty winds, listen to my heart
I know you feel
the eagle inside of me
