

Beseech, Endless Waters

My love I left you lonely
Im bound to a long crusade
Over endless waters
Where the winds blow fresh and free
This is my place to rest
Here isnt the place I want to be
Ive even lost our twilight tonight my dear
Well never see the sun go down
Ive even lost our twilight tonight my dear
Well never see the sun go down, again
The waves my only monument
That reminds me of you
But I want no tears for me
Someday well meet again
This is my place to rest
Here isnt the place I want to be
Ive even lost our twilight tonight my dear
Well never see the sun go down
Ive even lost our twilight tonight my dear
Well never see the sun go down, again
