

Beseech, Forever Falling

These words doesn't seem real to me
What did you try to say
Somewhere you hide from me
I just cannot find out where
You left a letter
How could I tell
I know you can hear me
Forever I will
I try to reach you
But I still fall
Forever falling
I still can feel the touch of your lips
Caress and tease my skin
I close my eyes and drift away
I find my way back to you
You left a letter
How could I tell
I know you can hear me
Forever I will
I try to reach you
But I still fall
Forever falling
Without any words I left that world
I don't feel any regrets over the last decisions that I made
The pain I left behind me made a scar
in my soul
That will last forever to remind me
You left a letter
How could I tell
I know you can hear me
Forever I will
I try to reach you
But I still fall
Forever falling
