

Beseech, Ghoststory

We lost the paradise of curiosity
Now we're bound to live in anxiety
All we have is hope to find the answer of the greatest question, will we live forever
We all dream of.....
So we head on.....
Now cast aside your fears, and start believing in there's a world beyond this, a beginning We may not see it now, but in the final it will be much greater than our survival
We all dream of.....
So we head on.....
In a new tomorrow, with all the reasons we can watch our past, and all the seasons Now we know the answer, and if you wonder we can tell you, we will live forever
We all dream of.....
So we head on.....
