Beseech, Moonride

Falling from heaven, into a sleep Dirty little angels, is looking at me God ripped out my eyes he closed the door to heaven He gave me wings to fly and made me taste the human blood Can you see the blood, falling from her eyes Don't you feel the mistress of the crimson sky Come here fly with me, and I will show you tricks Invite the dead into your dreams And watch out for that crucifix Falling from heaven, into a sleep Dirty little angels is looking at me Just look away God ripped out my eyes He closed the door to heaven He gave me wings to fly and made me taste the human blood
