

BESS, Ram pam pam

I, I only want
To take a night flight to Paris
And you, you only want
A one-way ticket to marriage

It feels like I already have one foot in the grave
If this is what love is, then dammit, count me out

I'm going to get my passport stamped
My heart doesn't dance to your beat
My footsteps zigzag all around the world
I'll never dance to your rhythm
Because I'm like
Ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
And you're just ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
Yeah let me get my passport stamped
My heart doesn't dance to your beat

We both have dreams
But we don't have any in common
And the torn-up holiday pictures
Stack up more than there are memories

It feels like I already have one foot in the grave
If this is what love is, then dammit, count me out

I'm going to get my passport stamped
My heart doesn't dance to your beat
My footsteps zigzag all around the world
I'll never dance to your rhythm
Because I'm like
Ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
And you're just ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
Yeah let me get my passport stamped
My heart doesn't dance to your beat

I know I'm crazy, but let's not discuss that again
I have some money at the bank and I'm going to spend it all
Goddammit, one has to be set free now
Before being six feet under

I'm going to get my passport stamped
My heart doesn't dance to your beat
My footsteps zigzag all around the world
I'll never dance to your rhythm
Because I'm like
Ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
And you're just ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
Yeah I'm going to get my passport stamped
My heart doesn't dance to your beat
My footsteps zigzag all around the world
I'll never dance to your rhythm
Because I'm like
Ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
And you're just ram, pam, pam, pam, pam, pam
Yeah I'm going to get my passport stamped
My heart doesn't dance to your beat
