

Beth, Rain On Me

I'm sick of arguments and trying the second guess
The little things that are going through your mind
I mind my own business, I sit back and take a rest
Don't feel the need to operate in your own time

And so I stop, look to the sky and say it...

Rain on me, rain on me ,rain
Wash it all away
Rain on me, rain on me ,rain
Rain on yesterday
Rain on me , rain on me, rain
Wash it all away

I'm losing patience with someone so negative
Who puts me down no matter how hard I try
You've got your answers on how I'm always wrong
So maybe I should go and find Mr. Right

And so I stop, look to the sky and say it...

Rain on me, rain on me ,rain
Wash it all away
Rain on me, rain on me ,rain
Rain on yesterday
Rain on me , rain on me, rain
Wash it all away
