

Bethany Joy Lenz Galeotti, Crazy Girls

I've been behind on the events of the past 7 days
I've been sleeping in my bed
And missing you like sometimes crazy girls do
I've been hanging like a child onto this photograph of us
It was taken on a bus across town the last time I saw you
And now this whole world is going 'round
But it's when you're gone it really brings me down, down
Well I can't get my self together I'm soaking in the pain
It's ridiculous how easy it is to go astray
When my focus ain't right
Sometimes crazy's all right
And now this whole world is going 'round
But it's when you're gone it really brings me down, oh
Oh, will you wait till I get back home again
'Cause I'm willing to give this another chance
Only you baby keep me up at night
Sometimes crazy's all right
Well I never thought I'd say I was in love with you again
It's funny how my life has come around to this
And I'm crazy for you
I do like crazy girls do
And now this whole world is going 'round
But it's when you're gone it really brings me down'
Oh, will you wait till I get back home again
'Cause I'm willing to give this another chance
Only you baby keep me up at night
Sometimes crazy's all right, crazy's all right
Oh, will you wait till I get back home again/[this whole world...]
'Cause I'm willing to give this another chance/[...is going 'round]
Only you baby keep me up at night/[this whole world is going 'round]
Sometimes
Oh, will you wait till I get back home again/[this whole world&...]
'Cause I'm willing to give this another chance/[...is going 'round]
Only you baby keep me up at night/[this whole world is going 'round]
Sometimes crazy's all right
