

Bethany Joy Lenz, Karen's Cafe

I know a place in Carolina
Its open year round
But only after dark so
Bring your gal and bring your wine
Unwind from your day
Gee, dont you know that youre in for a show
When you go down to Karens Cafe
I know a place in Carolina
Its open year round
But only after dark so
Bring your gal and bring your wine
Unwind from your day
Gee, dont you know that youre in for a show
When you go down to Karens Cafe
Ive been up, down, all around
Looking for a place to spend my nights
I dont wanna give it away
I dont want everybody crowding up my space but
I believe in sharing when you find a good thing
Its only common sense
Nobody likes to do it alone
Its dark and warm and candlelit
The perfect hideaway
But only if it (shh) stays a secret
Dont be shy, now come on by
Come hear the band play
Gee, dont you know that youre in for a show
When you go down to Karens Cafe
Ive been up, down, all around
Looking for a place to spend my nights
I dont wanna give it away
I dont want everybody crowding up my space but
I believe in sharing when you find a good thing
Its only common sense
(Nobody likes to do it alone)
So if you see my little place in Carolina
Dont tell your mother, brother, sister Sally, or uncle Joe
Just bring your gal and bring your wine
Unwind from your day
Gee, dont you know that your in for a show when you go, go, go, ohhhhhh
Gee, dont you know that your in for a show
when you go down to Karens Cafe
