

Betrayer, We Are Rebels

We Are Rebels
we fall out of the light
into the dark

We Are warriors
we rise to sweep away
the heritage divine

pray for mercy
we bring human pain
for the servants of God

die or surrender
prepare for the fatal
coming of the antichrist

the godless come to join us
we are the legion of hell
bastards, deviants and sinners
impious brothers in arms
bastards, deviants and sinners

we rise to sweep away

unholy rites
desolation
all down below
mourn

we raise against the light
we stand against the god
