

Bette Midler, Love Me With A Feeling

[Man:] "All right! She's gonna sing!"

[Rose:] "All right, we all turn to page 438.

Now, you know we all gonna sing along.

Oh, I do love a revue."

Ohhhhhh!

You know, women don't like this woman,

'cause I always speak my mind.

But the men ain't crazy about me,

'cause I love to take my time.

If you're gonna love this woman,

gotta love me with a thrill,

'cause, baby, if you don't,

I gotta find a man who will.

Love me with a feeling.

You got to love me with a feelin'.

You got to love me with a feelin',

or you don't love me at all.

You know, I'm the kind of woman,

I don't want no halfway stuff.

If you're gonna turn me loose, baby,

be sure I had enough.

You know, the cops once took me in,

but I did not need the bail.

I just shook it for the judge and he,

he put that cop in jail.

You got to love me with a feeling.

You got to love me with a feelin'.

You got to love me with a feelin',

or you don't love me at all.

"All right, Milledge, this one's for you."

There was one cat who could not make it,

and Milledge was his name.

The only cat I ever knew who left before he came.

There he's a-standing,

drinkin' pop from a paper cup.

But when it's time for gettin' down,

Milledge can not get it up!

You gotta love me with a feelin'.

Yeah, love, love me with a feelin'.

You got to love me with a feelin',

or you can't love me at all.
