

Bette Midler, Love Says It's Waiting

You were told to wait there for love.
Love says it's waiting for you.

And all I want to say is I know it's never easy getting all dressed up with no place to go.

Help, for, that's what we're here for.
All one together.
Is no one alone?

Come see your sister.
Call her your own.
Will no one hold you?
We'll hold you.
