

Bette Midler, That

Its such a mystery,
How he found something in me that I never knew was there,
He uncovered it so easily.
He turned me like a season
And I began to change.
He wrapped himself all around me.
Now Ill never be the same.

Chorus

Thats how love works,
Thats how love moves,
Like a river running through you.
Sometimes it lifts you as high as heaven.
It consumes you,
Thats a given.
Thats how love moves.
Oh,thats how love moves.
Ive seen walls that could never be broken
Come tumblindown.
Ive heard the voice of love calling
Without making a sound.
See,I was touched by an angel
The day he took my hand.
And I know hes the miracle
That makes me everything I am.

Chorus

Oh,love.
Sometimes its a whisper,
Sometimes its a storm.
Sometimes it reaches forever
With its everlasting arms.
Thats how love works,
Thats how love moves,
Like a river running through you.
Sometimes it lifts you as high as heaven.
It consumes you,
Thats a given.
Thats how love works,
Thats how love moves,
Like a river running through you.
Sometimes it lifts you as high as heaven.
It consumes you,
Thats a given.
Thats how love moves.
Thats how love moves.
Thats how love moves.
Thats how love moves.
