

Betty Curse, Beautiful Together

Resting in your arms
I have found my home
Thank our lucky charms
Seldom feel alone
We should go away
It would be such fun
Make a wish today
Blowing out the sun
Tonight I'm runnin' on gasoline
Tonight I'm gonna escape the scene
Tonight has finally come
Nothing on earth could ever split us in two
Always think of me, I always think of you and me
Meant to be
We're beautiful
Nothing on earth will ever rip us in two
Always think of me, I always think of you and me
Destiny
We're beautiful
Protect you from harm
I am always there
Thank our lucky stars
Never our nightmares
Make them go away
Happiness will grow
Evaporate the pain
Burnin' in your soul
Tonight we're runnin' on gasoline
Tonight we're gonna escape the scene
Tonight has finally come
Nothing on earth could ever split us in two
Always think of me, I always think of you and me
Meant to be
We're beautiful
Nothing on earth will ever rip us in two
Always think of me, I always think of you and me
Destiny
We're beautiful together
Tonight is finally here
Nothing on earth could ever split us in two
Always think of me, I always think of you and me
By the sea
So beautiful
Nothing on earth will ever rip us in two
Always think of me, I always think of you and me
Destiny
We're beautiful together
