

Beverly Craven, I Miss You

Here in the silence I wait there's nothing else I can do it feels like my heart's gonna break and all I can think of is you and how my aching arms long to hold you and show you how much I care but I'm counting the hours without you and I don't know how much I can bear cos I miss you
more than words can say
and I need you here
in my life always
yeah I miss you
and I'll always be waiting here for you
til you're back with me

you found a place in my heart from the first moment I saw you and you are my light in the dark and I would do anything for you cos you're everything I've ever wished for the answer to all of my dreams and I want you back home is here with me

oh I miss you

Yes I, would be right there beside you if I only knew where you are cos it feels like I'm dying without you my whole world falling apart and I miss you
