

Beverly Craven, Legendary Love

You fill my heart with desire
I know I'd give my life for you
Let me feel the passion in your arms
Lying by your side, the whole night through
I need you ? ? ? ? ? forever
Even though we both know it's wrong
? ? ? ? ? worth living for
Here with me is where you belong
I'd pay the price a thousand times to share my life with you
I'd hold you close and never let you go
Cos I feel I've always known you
You're the one I've been dreaming of
You are my destiny
And this will be a legendary love

I confess I'm guilty of the crime
Of wishing you were mine ? ? ? ? ?

I came to love my destiny (?)
Time will never change the way I feel
No-one else can love you more
What we have is worth fighting for

I'd pay the price a thousand times to share my life with you
I'd hold you close and never let you go
Cos I feel I've always known you
You're the one I've been dreaming of
You are my destiny
And this will be a legendary love

Cos I feel I've always known you
You're the one I've been dreaming of
You are my destiny
And this will be a legendary love
