Sixteen carriages drivin' away
While I watch them ride with my dreams away
To the summer sunset on a holy night
On a long back road, all the tears I find
Sixteen carriages drivin' away
While I watch them ride with my dreams away
To the summer sunset on a holy night
On a long back road, all the tears I find

Fifteen innocents was gone astray
Had to leave my home at an early age
I saw mama prayin', I saw daddy grind
All my tender problems, had to leave behind

It's been umpteenth summers and I'm not in my bed
On the back of the bus and a bunk with the bed
Goin' so hard, gotta choose myself
Underpaid and overwhelmed
I might cook, clean, but still won't fall
Still workin' on my life, you know
Only God knows, only God knows
Only God knows

Sixteen carriages driving away
While I watch them ride with my feels away
To the summer sunset on a holy night
On a long back road, all the tears I find
Sixteen carriages driving away
While I watch them ride with my feels away
To the summer sunset on a holy night
On a long back road, all the tears I find

Sixteen dollars, workin' all day
Ain't got time to waste, I got all to make
I got love to create on this holy night
They won't dim my light, all these years I find

It's been thirty-eight summers and I'm not in my bed
On the back of the bus and a bunk with the bed
Comin' so hard, now I miss my kids
Overworked and overwhelmed
I might cook clean, but still won't fall
Still workin' on my life, you know
Only God knows, only God knows
Only God knows

Sixteen carriages driving away
While I watch them ride with my fears away
To the summer sunset on a holy night
On a long back road, all the tears I fight
Sixteen carriages driving away
While I watch them ride with my fears away
To the summer sunset on a holy night
On a long back road, all these tears I fight

Oh, oh
Oh

At fifteen, the innocence was gone astray
Had to take care of home at an early age
I saw mama cryin', I saw daddy lyin'
Had to sacrifice and leave my fears behind
The legacy is the last thing I do
You'll remember me 'cause we got somethin' to prove

In your memory, on a highway to truth
Still see your faces when you close your eyes

Sixteen carriages drivin' away
While I watch them ride with my dreams away
