

Beyond The Black, Million Lightyears

I'm a million lightyears away from you
Saved a million dry tears just for you

Our hearts are bittersweet
It's coming alive 'cause it's so alive to pain
For good and let it bleed
Knowing that somewhere in time you'll feel the same

I shouldn't bleed in vain
Shall all of my sadness be what I am to face
Until the end of days

I'm a million lightyears away from you
Saved a million dry tears just for you
How I only wish that you could hear
My Rhapsody in Blue
I'm a million lightyears away from you

Ohh, ohh, oh (I'm hearing you crying my name)
Ohh, ohh, oh (Can you take the sorrow from me)
Ohh, ohh, oh (Or will I be always insane)
I'm a million lightyears away from you

A prayer into the night
Arising from out of the void you left in me
A song across the sky
Now you'll be carrying my little melody

I shouldn't chant in vain
I'm willing to take all the woe and carry on Until another dawn

I'm a million lightyears away from you
Saved a million dry tears just for you
How I only wish that you could hear
My Rhapsody in Blue
I'm a million lightyears away from you

I'm a million lightyears away from you
Saved a million dry tears just for you
How I only wish that you could hear
My Rhapsody in Blue
I'm a million lightyears away from you

Ohh, ohh, oh (I'm hearing you crying my name)
Ohh, ohh, oh (Can you take the sorrow from me)
Ohh, ohh, oh (Or will I be always insane)
I'm a million lightyears away from you
